

WHAT CAN I DO?

Here's what you can do:

- 1 . Organize Start a local chapter of SAPPED. Find like-minded people, ready to end the hate.
- 2 . Lobby Let local and Imperial officials know that SAPPED opposes the social and legal climate in which people freely act against so-called "mutants."
- 3 . Petition SAPPED is collecting signatures and petitions, to convince Emperor Karl-Franz to grant Imperial protection to those who suffer physical deformities, and to demand that the empire bring an end to the so-called "anti-mutant laws."
- 4 . Outreach There are frightened victims of physical deformity in every community. Reach out to them, protect them, and restore their dignity.
- 5. Donate Moneys donated to SAPPED will be used to bring children who suffer from deformities gained at birth into loving households, who will hide them from the efforts of law enforcement to kill them. Your money will be used to offer legal defense to persons who have protected mutants from the anti-mutant laws. With a donation of 100 gold you will receive a tote bag emblazoned with the picture of Harvey which graces the front of this pamphlet.

Also available from SAPPED:

WHAT KIND OF LIFE DID HARVEY LEAD BEFORE SAPPED FOUND HIM?

Harvey was born to two merchants from the outskirts of Marienberg. At birth his mother screamed and ordered her nurse to kill Harvey. The kindly nurse could not bring herself to do so, and kept Harvey hidden in her shack for several years.

Harvey's digestive system is unusual. He was unable to subsist off of bread or other food, and instead could only take his nutrient from eating rodents and large insects.

But still, Harvey could not show his face. At age 16, the villagers learned about Harvey. Wielding pitchforks and torches, they chased Harvey down and tied him to a stake, and were about to burn him alive. But moments before the local justice of the peace lit the brush on fire, a trader in human flesh – Doctor Malthusius – appeared in town and begged the villagers to stop. Doctor Malthusius paid them for the poor “mutant,” and for years Harvey was the main attraction at Doctor Malthusius's freak show, on display unclothed for the enrichment of Doctor Malthusius.

That was where SAPPED found Harvey. An arrangement was finally made with Doctor Malthusius, to free Harvey.

IMAGINE

Imagine what it would be like. One day you wake up, and your skin is hardening in places. Or small horns are growing from your head. You have a tail, or perhaps the flesh is beginning to melt from your face.

There is nowhere to go. Nobody will take you in. The law requires that your friends and neighbors hunt you down.

You run. Perhaps you can remember a time when you hated the “mutants” and blamed them for their own condition. But now you realize that your humanity is not gone – you still have the same needs and wants. Instead, the humanity is gone from every person you encounter.

You find yourself attacked by Roadwardens, trying to kill you for a bounty from their Captain. You have no choice but to fight back. You cannot control your muscles as well as you once had, and you accidentally take a life. You see yourself covered with the blood of the man who tried to kill you, and you begin to feel that you may be a monster.

I AM DEFORMED. WHAT CAN I DO?

Do not be ashamed of your deformity. It is not a sign that you are a bad person.

Find a member of SAPPED to help run you to a friendly community which we maintain. You can tell members of SAPPED by their Harvey tote bags.

Understand that their ignorance is what causes the hatred. Even the Elf, who maintains an air of especial fear and loathing for those who suffer deformities, does so to cover their own feelings of inadequacy, and to try to please their Human and Dwarfish masters. Try to understand where their hatred comes from – combat the hate and not those who hate.

Learn to embrace the total you. Many deformities can actually provide assistance to you or those around you. Harvey, for example, secretes a syrupy sweet substance which is sold to grocers in Bogenhafen.

BE ON THE LOOKOUT FOR...

If you can locate and help protect a so-called “chaos dwarf” traveling under the name “The Brother Grimm,” he needs the help of SAPPED. He travels with two house elves, a human, and a Mootlander.

You can tell Grimm by his scarred face and chest, and lack of beard. His arms and hands apparently have brittle bones, subject to easy fracture. Also, running scared, Grimm has exhibited a short temper – be careful on approaching him.
